LOCAL MATTERS.
Thursday's Daily.
Dr. BERGESS, Dentist, is in town again and is stopping at the Palace; will remain ten days when he will return to his home in California.
The Tucson and Tombstone Stage Company, Ohsenorg & Walker, proprietors, are now conducting their business on a new footing. They have a new floor in their office.
By coach from the East this morning came Mr. Frank Staples, of the prosperous firm of Lacy & Co., of Fort Apache. Mr. Staples looks as though the air and water at Apache just suited his constitution, and reports our friend Lacy hearty as usual. Frank will enjoy himself for several days on his native heath, transact some business and then skip back to his mountain home. Hope his visit will be a pleasant one.
The A., T. and S. F. R. R.
Among the passengers arriving by coach from Casa Grande yesterday was Mr. W. R. Morley, Chief Assistant Engineer of the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe Railroad Company. It is now well understood that this company are determined to build a road line to the Pacific coast with the least possible delay. Major Morley, as before mentioned in THE CITIZEN, has been examining the country between San Diego and Yuma with a view to determining the best passes, the most feasible route and the general nature and resources of the country. There are no serious physical obstructions in the way should the company conclude to make San Diego a terminus.
The company now have four surveying parties operating in Arizona who will soon be able to furnish the information which will determine the route through Arizona. This afternoon Mr. Morley left for Guaymas in company with Mr. Schuyler of the Guaymas railroad company. Before returning he will make a thorough examination of the country, its resources etc., including that important item of coal.
While these observations are being made along the Coast the main line is coming down through New Mexico at the rate of a mile and a half to two miles daily, and this construction will not cease until the iron touches the waters of the Pacific. The company may conclude to run branches to three termini on the Coast, but in the meantime it is certain that they will command one harbor at least.
The Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe Company is a strong, influential and independent one. They are building their road as a private enterprise for mutual benefit, and the people of Arizona will welcome them cordially within our borders.

MR. D. VELASCO has remodelled his commission office on Mesilla street, opposite THE CITIZEN, and is now able to transact business with comfort as well as economy and dispatch.
MR. W. W. McALLEY came in by Walker's stage last evening. He has some excellent properties in the Tombstone country which promise him a handsome stake at an early day.
MR. J. H. NORTON, of Fort Grant, is spending a few days in town on business matters. He is looking well and reports his partner, Hon. M. W. Stewart, in good health and deeply interested in mines. Their business at Fort Grant is flourishing.

To-Day's Daily.
CHARLEY OTT was in his element again to-day, with an auction of "traps."
MINE jumping seems to be a brisk business this season. From all sides we hear of enterprises of that kind; and it would seem that Pima county has an influx of Leadvillians to engage in the noble work. Our jumper is a very exact individual; knows the law, and can see a "point" as plainly as a very high up Judge. His scent for a good claim is generally quickened by the knowledge that somebody is about to make a purchase; look out for he will him. certainly be in your neighborhood.

E. N. FISU has gone to Patagonia to look after the assessment work on some of his rich locations out there.

In Memoriam.
The members of the bar met this morning and voted the presentation of the following memorial and resolutions to Judge French:
WHEREAS, It has pleased God to remove to another life the late consort of our worthy Chief Justice, Hon. C. G. W. French; now, therefore, be it
RESOLVED, That we, the members of the Tucson Bar, take this occasion to express our admiration of the character of the deceased; of her gentle virtues: her pure love and exalted faith; and we extend to her sorrowing husband and children our heartfelt sorrow and deepest sympathy in this, their great bereavement; and we respectfully request the Clerk of this Court to forward to Judge French and said children, a certified copy of this token of sympathy, under the seal of this Court.
